MEET COACH SCOTT J. BEIGEL

Scott J. Beigel was a teacher, cross-country coach and a camp counselor. Scott died a hero saving 31 students during the Marjory Stoneman Douglas massacre in Parkland, FL. Days after, Coach Beigel's cross-country team organized a 5K in honor of their mentor, bringing together a grief-stricken community, mourning the lives of 17 individuals lost. This 5K would forevermore be named the RUN 4 BEIGEL.

The funds raised by RUN 4 BEIGEL events go directly to the Scott J. Beigel Memorial Fund, a 501(c)(3) organization, created in an effort to honor Scott's dreams and raise funds to help send at-risk children touched by gun violence to summer sleep-away camp.
